Many people are familiar with Terry Pettit's achievements as a Hall of Fame coach, but not as many know that he is an accomplished poet as well. Terry earned an MFA in Creative Writing at the University of Arkansas and continued writing poetry during his twenty-six years a college volleyball coach, and fourteen years as a mentor to coaches and athletic directors. In his introduction to Trust and the River, Terry writes the following:

*Winning bidder responsible for any shipping costs.

“Some of these poems were begun over forty years ago. One was written last week. Even as I spent my professional life as a coach, assistant to the athletic director, mentor to coaches, and director of leadership academies, I continued to write essays, nonfiction, and poetry. I hope you encounter a phrase or metaphor that carries you the way that I am transformed when confronted with language that startles me to consider something in a different way.”
